Dance Festival Saturday 18th November York University (Central Hall)

Please find below a last reminder of details about the Dance Festival –

Transport

If your child needs transport to the University, the school will provide it using the minibus. Please sign the slip below and return to Miss Jarman. All children should meet at school for 12.15pm. If children do not need any transport they can meet in the foyer at Central Hall at York University at 1pm.

Food and drink

Children are advised to bring a packed lunch, a snack and a refillable drink with them.

Costumes

All children are to wear black trousers/leggings and trainers. Miss Jarman will be providing coloured t-shirts and face paint for all children. Hair should be tied back and any hair accessories are allowed.

Performance

The performance starts at 3pm and should be finished at approximately 6pm. All children can be collected in the foyer after the performance. If children are travelling back on the minibus they will be back at school for 6.30pm.

Tickets

Please visit the link to order tickets for this event. There are not many tickets left for the event so I would advise you to book them ASAP. Full details about the Dance Festival can be found on:
