Better never stops...

Dear Parents / Carers,

On Monday 27th November 2017 there will be a free performance and drama workshop of a show called Kaspar The Wild by Tim Crouch. Please can children arrive at 4.45pm in the school hall and the show will start at 5pm. Children can be collected at 6.30pm.

The play will be directed by Kate Versey and performed by 25 young performers between the ages of 11 and 14. Below is a little bit more about it:

Who is the mysterious Kaspar?

A scruffy, silent boy is found wandering the streets of the big city. The authorities, at a loss, send him to a sleepy small-town school to start a new life. Kaspar struggles to find his voice as deep seated prejudices are unearthed and tolerance pushed to its limits as school staff and pupils chatter noisily around him, unsure how to handle this delinquent disaster so rudely dropped into their midst.

The performance is suitable for Years 3 to 6 (children aged 7 to 11). If you wish for your son or daughter to attend then please return the slip below to the school office by Thursday 23rd November 2017. We can only have a limited audience so it will be on a first come first serve basis. Due to capacity, I am afraid parents, carers and smaller siblings will not be able to watch the performance.

Thank you,

Mrs Smith
